Student Financial Aid Office
For smooth execution of scholarship programs, a Student Financial Aid Office (SFAO) was established in GC University Lahore in collaboration with HEC in 2005. Initially Rs. 409,000/- were provided by HEC for the establishment and operational cost of SFAO for the period of one year only.
In the financial year 2012-2013, the HEC allocated Rs.5.0 million for the strengthening of Financial Aid Office. In this regard, Student Financial Aid Office was shifted to its new separate premises in the basement of Student Service Centre.
The SFAO is being supervised by the Deputy Registrar (Academic), who also acts as a Focal Person for the distribution of various scholarships offered by HEC and other agencies. There is a list of scholarships available to assist students with their educational expenses on need and merit basis. In addition to the above Financial Aid Committee has been constituted by this University for the evaluation and approval of the applications submitted by the students for financial aid.

Guidelines/Procedure to apply for Scholarship/Financial Aid
Comprehensive, transparent and unbiased framework for assessment & selection of deserving students is to be followed by Scholarship/Financial Aid Committees. In case a student intends to get Scholarship/Financial Aid, he/she shall have to apply on prescribed Application Form as and when announced by Student Financial Aid Office.

Scholarship/Financial Aid Award Process
All the applications for scholarships and financial aid will be evaluated and recommended by the Scholarship/Financial Aid Committees constituted by the Vice Chancellor or by the Authorized body of funding Individual / Institution. Scholarship / Financial Aid is based on the assessment of need and merit as well as availability of funds. Selection is decided on the basis of information provided on Application Form and interview of the candidate if required.

Rules and Regulations regarding Academic Performance
A student must maintain satisfactory academic progress for the continuation of Scholarship / Financial Aid. Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) is a set of following standards:
1. Undergraduate Students must maintain 2.0 CGPA.
2. Postgraduate students must maintain 2.5 CGPA.
3. Students who receive an Incomplete (“I”) Grade or who repeat course (s) will be ineligible.
4. Students who are placed on probation will be ineligible until they raise their CGPA.

Above mentioned conditions can be changed on the basis of guidelines provided by the funding Organization/Institution.

150 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE
Procedure to Appeal against Scholarship/Financial Aid Suspension

To appeal against Scholarship/Financial Aid suspension, a student must be able to demonstrate the existence of mitigating circumstances. Mitigating circumstances are defined as, but not limited to, injury or illness of the student, death of a close relative, or undue hardship caused by unusual circumstances. The following steps shall be taken in the appeal process:

1. The student shall inform in writing to the Focal Person/Chairman of Scholarship/Financial Aid Committee about circumstances under which he/she could not make satisfactory academic progress and why Financial Aid should not be terminated. Provision of relevant documents to support the appeal is strongly encouraged. The appeal must be received within two weeks of the date the student was notified about the suspension of his/her Scholarship/Financial Aid.

2. The Scholarship/Financial Aid Committee will review the appeal and determine whether or not termination of aid is justified. The decision of the Scholarship/Financial Aid Committee will be informed to the student accordingly.

The committee’s decision will be final and may not be appealed further.

Providing False Information

Providing false information may result one or all of the following:

- Cancellation of admission
- Rustication from the University
