

Department of Urdu

Introduction

The Department of Urdu is one of the outstanding departments of GC University Lahore. Prominent educationists and eminent scholars have been associated with this Department. Prof. Ahmad Shah Bukhari (Patras), Soofi Ghulam Mustafa Tabassum, Kh. Manzoor Hussain, Dr. Muhammad Sadiq, G.M. Asar, Dr. Moeen ur Rehman, Prof. Dr. Sohail Ahmad Khan, Dr. Waheed Qureshi are some of the intellectuals who have been part of the Department.

Postgraduate classes in Urdu were initiated under the auspices of A.S. Bukhari. MA classes were started again in 1985 after an interval of a few years. The Department of Urdu revised its syllabi after Government College Lahore became a Degree Awarding Institution in 1997, and made more significant changes when GC was granted the status of a University in 2002.

Facilities

Research

The department promotes research in all genres of Urdu Literature and also stresses on comparative and interdisciplinary study of Literature.

Research Journal

The department publishes its research journal the "Tahqiq Nama" on annual basis. A number of universities in the Subcontinent subscribe to the journal. It publishes research articles by scholars from Pakistan and abroad.
