

Students Accomodation

Accommodation

Every student is expected to live with his/her parents. A student who wishes to live with some close relative other than his/her parents should produce a written permission letter signed by his/her father or guardian that s/he can do so. The name of the relative, his occupation, designation, address and precise relation must be specified. It will not be enough to write that "the student is going to reside with his/her cousin", etc.
