

Commitment to Excellence

The University expects from its students a commitment to excellence in all activities to get the best out of the University, and in turn make a valuable contribution to society and help in the spread of knowledge, enlightenment and social well-being, just as countless as another old students of the University have before them.

