

Quality Enhancement Cell

Quality Enhancement is defined as strengthening, augmenting, boosting, and improving existing practices. Quality Enhancement Cell (QEC) at GCU was established in March 2007 with a mission "to integrate the concept of quality education in higher learning with enhanced levels of international compatibility through capacity building". The main focus of quality assurance programme is Self Assessment Exercise (which results in better assessment and academic quality at Programme, Departmental and Institutional level and ultimately lead in achieving/attaining exalted status in national and international ranking), Continuous Professional Development of staff, Plagiarism Verifications for these MS/MPhil/PhD and research publications, Faculty Evaluation, GCU Publications, Provision of GCU Statistics to the Higher Education Commission for their Database, QS Ranking, Times Higher Education World University Ranking (THEWUR), to prepare report of MS/MPhil/PhD Review Process, Academic Audit and Assessment of the academic and administrative departments working within the Quality Assurance (QA) framework.

The QEC at Government College University Lahore is also involved actively in gathering, compiling and consolidating information on the HEC Ranking Proforma of Higher Education Institutions in Pakistan under various categories. The premise of this entire exercise is to participate internationally in QS Ranking and Times World Ranking.

The Director QEC is also supervising and In charge of Career Guidance & Placement Centre, and Day Care Centre at GC University Lahore. The rationale of placing all these departments/projects/tasks under the ambit of QEC is to ensure their effective and timely implementation for Internal and External Quality Assurance measures/mechanisms.

The QEC at Government College University Lahore also has been organizing Training Programmes, Awareness/Capacity Building Seminars since its inception. In recognition of its selfless dedication, commitment and outstanding performance, the Higher Education Commission and Pink Ribbon International conferred upon Government College University Lahore Pinktobber Award 2016.

The purpose of all the activities carried out by QEC is to focus on improvement of academic and administrative standards and be a part of the loop of Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI) which entails more than just meeting set standards; it often requires exceeding them.
